NOT DISCOURAGED.

THOUGH OFTEN PREACHING TO FIVE TO TEN PEOPLE.

Under date of March 22, Rev. Geo. O. Barnes writes to Mrs. Welch from 1,635 P. Street, N. W., Washington, as follows:

DEAR SISTER:—I haven't anything additional to report except a marked increase in our week-night congregations. It has required "right smart" of faith to go on for more than two months, preaching every night to a congregation varying from five to 10. To some, it would savor of fanaticism or idiosyncrasy, but it is faith—so often thus mistaken by those who are ignorant of "the true inwardness" of a Christian's "heavenly calling." So I have preached my "level best" all along the line, and have never, for a moment, felt like "giving it up." As for mere numbers, I can always preach with greater freedom to a "corporal's guard" of hearers, than to a vast multitude; but, of course, for the sake of the good cause, I crave larger audiences.

Whether it has got abroad that I am now preaching on the first three chapters of Genesis—about which the forces of scepticism, in and out of the church, have lately gathered—I don't know. But certainly, for some reason, either curiosity or real interest has attracted a goodly number of strangers to the "Church of the 4 Gospels." In either case we "Praise the Lord" and "take courage." I am here, by grace, to fight it out, on this line, if takes all summer. So far, in the most wonderful way, the dear Lord has "supplied the lack of service" that poor, dear, old Kentucky, ought to have rendered, and our wants have been met from day to day, as they arose, so that we have "lacked nothing." Col. Hill's remark that this is "a rich city" is perfectly true; only it is rich, unfortunately, are not at my disposal; and his further remark that it "ought to support me" is also just. Only it don't "support" me. I should have starved in sight of its riches.

"Oceans of water all around, But never a drop to drink!" Had not "support" come from persons and places upon whom I had very little claim, compared with "Old Kentucky." But not another line on that subject. It still affects me with Spiritual nausea when I think of it; which, the Lord be praised, I very seldom do. I think, oftener, of the dear Stanford folks, and would like much to tell them, "things new and old," the Lord has taught, and is still teaching me; but it is not likely, I shall ever have my wish gratified. It will only be "the turning of an hour glass" till we shall see HIM and dispense with other teachers forever.

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Thomas Durham, 50, died at Kings-ton.

J. N. Hoover, of Boyle, aged 61, is dead.

Kirk Shelton, sent up from Pulaski or five years for arson, was pardoned.

Sam McClure, of Rockcastle, took the bankrupt law, with $617 liabilities and no assets.

Carter Langford, of Alleeton, Boyle county, weighs 176 pounds although but 13 years old.

Nannie Sumner, aged 10 years, was burned to death near Williamsburg by her clothing catching fire.

Mrs. Pitzer, aged 80, died of paralysis at the home of her son-in-law, Hon. John D. Black, at Harboursville.

James M. Miller, a farmer, fell from his buggy near Lebanon, and was caught in the wheels and killed.

Mrs. Baker, a sister of Banker J. R. Rice, died in Kansas and her body was brought to Pineville for burial.

John Williams, colored, charged with stealing a horse from Charles Todd, of Richmond, was captured in Lexington.

Mrs. Margaret King, of Whitley county, convicted for selling blackberry wine, was pardoned by Gov. Worthington.

The Garrard grand jury found 54 indictments, including 18 against the Standard Oil Company and 14 against insurance companies.

Geo. S. Owens, of Knox county, and W. M. Howard, of Harlan, were among the seriously wounded in the battles with the Filipinos near Manila.

Judge C. R. McDowell lost out in the court of appeals, which sustained Judge Toney's decision that he was not entitled to $2,500 fee in a building and loan association suit for any other amount.

J. R. Sawyer, who killed young Robert Burnside at Harboursville, by stabbing him, has had his sentence again commuted by Gov. Worthington. It was originally 21 years. On a former petition he cut it to 10 years and now he cuts off five of that.

Mary Brewer, the two-year-old daughter of Elder W. P. Walden, died in Harrodsburg of pneumonia and the remains were brought to Lancaster. This makes three deaths in the family in about six weeks, extending in age from the great-grandmother, Mrs. Kittie Leavell, 84, to the infant of the fourth generation.

LANCASTER.

Mr. Joe D. Pope and Miss Alice Turner were married on Thursday, 23d.

Hon. R. C. Warren is making a good judge and will dispose of the docket about the middle of the week.

County Clerk J. M. Duncan says that today's county court was the dullist on record. He didn't even issue a marriage license.

I find Col. Joe F. Waters here working the endowment rank of the Knights of Pythias and meeting with much success, as he does everywhere he goes.

After an absence of three weeks, I find but little news to report as the watchful eyes and trained ears of the INTERIOR JOURNAL force have caught it all.

Squire Ike Myers attended the burial of his sister, Mrs. John Herne, at Covington, Saturday. She was a great sufferer, having been an invalid for years.

C. C. McChord, candidate for railroad commissioner, made a brief speech at the court-house yesterday. Knowing ones say Pilcher will get the instructions of Garrard, but that the delegates will be friendly toward McChord, if not McChord men.

Mr. John Hays, a prominent attorney of Harboursville, has formed a partnership with Hamilton & Robinson, and they will office over C. D. Powell's store, north side of public square. This will make an able firm and they will get their share of the business.

Our Commercial Club is doing some good work toward the extension of the Louisville Southern Railway from Burgin through this county, and it is confidently believed that its efforts will be crowned with success. Nothing would be more beneficial, as competition in freight is much needed.

Capt. Thomas Austin and Mr. T. J. Hatcher have bought the county right for the use of a device to clean cisterns without removing the water. It is placed on the bottom and by moving it around, all the filth is pumped out without mixing it with the water. Those who have had the work done pronounce it a perfect success. Everybody should take advantage of it as more disease is brought about by impure water than in any other way.

Our people are still fearful that the fire insurance companies will withdraw from this city on account of the indictments found against them, but I do not think this will occur. The policy holders had rather pay even more than they are now paying than to be left without protection, and if they are satisfied everybody else should be, and the indictments should be dismissed for want of prosecution. Many are also complaining because the companies were not indicted in Stanford and Danville if the same rates are in force there.

During my stay in Liberty I fell in love with the people. They are made up of the genuine type of manhood, being highly intelligent, social and affable. The lawyers, public officials, doctors, preachers, merchants, bankers and mechanics are far above the average and the thrift and beauty of the growing little city is a proof of this assertion. I met several old Lincoln county friends, among them, Maj. Drye, Eld. Montgomery and W. D. Stagg, the latter recalling memories of 30 years ago. Leading democrats told me that the county would instruct for Gen. P. Wat Hardin for governor. While there, parties passed through, prospecting for building an electric railway from Moreland through Hustonville and Liberty to Tennessee. The people are favorable to the enterprise and it is believed that the road will be built in the near future. Indeed there is no reason why it should not be, as there is much good land in that country and the travel together with the commercial demands in exports and imports, would support the road very handsomely.

President H. E. Woolfolk, of the K. P. A., has appointed the following delegates to the next annual convention of the National Editorial Association, which will be held at Portland, Oregon, in July: Charles M. Lewis, of the Sentinel, Shelbyville; Harry Tandy, News, Paducah; W. Q. Adams, Inquirer, Owensboro; Louis Landram, Record, Lancaster; M. F. Conley, News, Louisville; and J. R. Collier, Franklin, Favorite. Alternates: J. M. Allen, Democrat, Cynthiana; C. C. Pare, News, Glasgow; J. J. Glenn, Hustler, Madisonville; John L. Bosley, Reporter, Paris; Wallace MacKay, Tiger, Shepherdsville; and Clarence E. Woods, Climax, Richmond.

THE EAGLE, KING OF ALL BIRDS, Is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, styes, sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold at Penny's at 25 cents.

Our exchanges are still publishing the big wheat sale made by J. C. Caldwell, of Boyle, to Anderson & Spilman, the Danville millers. This item is so old that the I. J. realizes that it is almost time we were publishing it again to keep it green in their memory.

MRS. CATH BAILEY.

A LOVING TRIBUTE TO A GOOD WOMAN.

At the last meeting of the C. C. Aid Society the following tribute to the memory of one, whom God in His wisdom has seen fit to remove, was passed upon, to be entered upon our minute book, and published in the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

In the death of our sister, Mrs. C. J. Bailey, we lose one of our few charter members, and thus another link in the chain which bound us to a time when the sun shone brighter, the sky was more blue, and the roses bloomed more abundantly; the glad days when "Aunt Cath," in the meridian of life, the noon-time of usefulness, went in and out among us, a staunch, zealous member ever—and our president at one period for some time—honored and respected, discharging the duties of the position in a timid, though dignified manner, ever jealous of the interest of the society and the cause it represented.

We shall miss her. We loved her; and were beloved. We need no gifted pen to tell of her virtues; her life is an "open book." Let memory of her shine as a beacon, to lead where she has gone. May no thought that she has fallen victim to the dark winged messenger ever cloud this memory, for was not hers, a "Well rounded life to a circle fair?" and "has passed into a region yet untrod to read what is yet unread in the manuscript of God."

But by the eye of faith we behold "Aunt Cath" upon that glorious morn "adorned as a bride for her husband." For are we not all to be renewed, when He comes to take His ransomed home? Until then may the grass continue green and the dew shed its sweetness and luster upon her resting place.

DISCOVERED BY A WOMAN.

Another great discovery has been made and that too, by a lady in this country. "Diseases fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hancock & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

TO THE NORTH.—The Queen & Crescent Route has inaugurated a service of observation cars on the famous Blue Grass Vestibule between Cincinnati and Lexington. Free parlor cars and Queen & Crescent standard vestibuled day coaches. Four trains daily to Cincinnati with close connection with all trains North. Queen & Crescent trains are without a peer in the South; 17 miles shortest line, unequalled train service. W. C. Rinearson, G. P. A.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

COLORED RECRUITS.—The war department has wired Lieut. W. T. Johnston, recruiting officer at Lexington, Ky., to enlist colored applicants for cavalry and infantry service, sending the former to Fort Grant, Arizona, and the latter to Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City. This is an excellent opportunity for young colored men to get into the regular army. Recruits for white infantry and cavalry regiments are also wanted. Apply to Lieut. W. T. Johnston, Main St., Lexington, Ky.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Penny, Druggist, guaranteed.

The Lexington Standard, edited by a Negro, says: "The Negro is imitative. He apes the white man in almost everything, even as a thief. The only trouble is that the Negro makes a botch of it. For instance, the white man steals the money of the widows and orphans and the hard earnings of the laboring man, from the banks, and decamps to foreign fields and pastures new, but the Negro seems satisfied with a chicken or a can of sardines, just enough to get him in prison."

THE APPETITE OF A GOAT.

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at Penny's Drug Store.

The tea imports in 1898 were 68,040,963 pounds.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS.

Ex-Gov. Fletcher, of Missouri, is dead at Washington of paralysis. Binding twine is now admitted free of duty. Score one for free trade.

All three of the candidates for the Legislature in Clinton are preachers. The president will get back to Washington from his Southern outing to-day.

Of the 18,463 bills and resolutions introduced in the last Congress, 1,457 became laws.

An elaborate Jefferson day banquet will be given March 30 at Topeka, Kas., with covers for 1,500.

The republican railroad commissioner's convention for this district, will be held in Louisville, April 19.

The Tennessee Legislature has passed a law prohibiting the making of any contract hereafter to be paid in anything but a legal tender.

Augusta will erect a monument to the Hon. Patrick Walsh. The idea is to put up a bronze statue of heroic size in one of the public squares.

Secretary Alger and his party arrived at Havana after having lost their way at sea for several hours. Owing to the delay there was no reception.

H. B. Morehead, son of the late Ex-U. S. Senator and Gov. Morehead, of Kentucky, died at Cincinnati, where he amassed a fortune and made a fine reputation.

Maj. J. Embury Allen defeated Capt. W. H. May for the Senatorial nomination in Fayette, and Solomon VanMeter was nominated over Jas. Humphreys for representative.

It is stated on pretty good authority that Senator McChord is Senator Goebel's choice for railroad commissioner and that his nomination will be a victory for the Covington man.

John S. Smith, of Paris, candidate for attorney general, says he is related to all the Smiths in Kentucky and as he expects the support of them all he is sure of nomination and election.

Asked what he thought of Bryan's controversy with Belmont, Senator Lindsay said: "I was not of those who supported Bryan and do not care to criticize, though I can say nothing in his favor."

The most enthusiastic as well as the largest crowd that has gathered to hear Senator Goebel speak heard him at Elizabethtown Saturday evening. A dispatch says the ovation he received was almost equal to that given Mr. Bryan in 1896.

The sudden springing of Postmaster Edwards, of Lawrenceburg, into the railroad commissioner's canvass, when Irwin was about to be declared the nominee, is said to be an effort of the Euter-Todd crowd to down the captain, who is a Bradley man.

Bryan says: "What the Lord's Supper is to the Christian, so a Jefferson banquet is to the democrat. Just as a good Christian would revolt at having the sacrament administered by an infidel, so a good democrat objects to having a Jefferson banquet presided over by Perry Belmont."

Speaking of Gov. Bradley resigning to let Gov. Worthington be the real thing for a while, the Louisville Times says: "An occasional whack at the God-like prerogative of granting pardons is enough glory and gratification for the much-hearted old gentleman from the vernal hills of Greenup."

Judge Charles Patterson has issued a circular letter to the democratic voters of the second railroad commissioner's district, charging State Senator C. C. McChord with having voted for Major Lisle, Patterson's republican political opponent, two years ago. The Senator will doubtless deny the damaging charge.

Little Phil Thompson, who is a member of the democratic club, whose president, Perry Belmont, was so severely snubbed by Bryan, says it was the most indiscreet act of his career and that it was as uncalculated for as it was indiscreet. It will lose him friends where he might have made many.

F. H. Pierpont, who established a government at Wheeling at the outbreak of the war and called himself governor, is dead, aged 86. He was the principal agitator of the division of the State before the war and the prime mover in the reorganization of West Virginia, and has since been known as the father of that State.

On his return from Nicholasville, Senator Goebel said: "It looks better for me than it has at any time within the last two months. Hardin is losing ground every day. I spoke last at Nicholasville, in Hardin's congressional district, and am absolutely confident of carrying that county, although it is contiguous to Mercer, my opponent's home."

Jack Chiles will be asking: "McCarthy have you got a gun?" the first thing the Jossamine Journal knows. It says: "It is detrimental to the interests of the democratic party of Kentucky, and especially of the 8th district, to have such a man as Jack Chiles at the head of one of its most important committees. It is no wonder the old rooster often hangs its head in shame and the banner of the party trails in the dust."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - MAR. 28, 1899

W. P. WALTON.

IN deciding the famous Norman Barker case, the court of appeals holds that Barker was not entitled to certain fees allowed him by Auditor Norman, amounting to $40,000 or more, but holds that the ex-auditor is not guilty of the charge made by Gov. Brown that he had conspired and colluded with Barker to defraud the State. It would have given judgment against Barker for the full amount, but all except about $10,000 is barred by limitation and judgment only for that amount is given. This is the case that caused the great row between Gov. Brown and Auditor Norman and is the same in which Gov. Bradley gave Brown a fee of $3,000 to prosecute in the courts after his term of office had expired and caused Norman to make the charge that the fee was given to him as a reward for work done for the republicans. The court holds also that Barker was guilty of constructive fraud in taking the fees, when the statute plainly said the only way to proceed against delinquents for license tax was by indictment and fine, and by inference the then attorney general, P. W. Hardin, was also guilty of constructive fraud in advising the auditor that the fees must be paid to Barker. This is rather tough on Hardin, who will readily go acquit by those who know him of any fraudulent intent, but he will have to plead that other almost as damaging excuse for a lawyer—ignorance of the law he was elected to defend and enforce. The republicans are in high feather over the decision and will use it for campaign material for all it is worth.

It comes via the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune from Frankfort and therefore is not entitled to much credence that Bryan has declared for Hardin for governor and that a further anti-Goebel slate has been made out as follows: For lieutenant governor, Thomas H. Hays, of Jefferson county; Secretary of State, John W. Headley, Hopkins county; Auditor, June W. Gayle, Owen county; Treasurer, Gus W. Richardson, Meade county; Attorney General, W. B. Fleming, Louisville. We do not believe that Bryan is taking a hand in Kentucky politics. He would be foolish to do so, besides being sure of a rebuke. A weak invention of the enemy is a mild way of disposing of the matter.

A DOZEN or more Negroes were lynched in the Red River section of Arkansas last week, under the flimsy pretext that they had incited and were preparing for a race war. The acts of the brutal creatures who took part in the hangings are a disgrace to civilization and they should be ferreted out and dealt with themselves in as summary a manner. The coroner and his jury that found after viewing the bodies that "they came to their death from natural causes or were frozen" deserve almost as much condemnation and punishment for their heartless verdict.

THE nomination of Maj. Allen over Capt. May for the Senate in Fayette by a vote of 24, in a total of 38, is said to mean that Goebel will certainly carry that county. Allen was his candidate and May was backed by Bronston, who made speeches for him, and was so disgusted over the result that he left Lexington for the Western part of the State as soon as the result was announced. Bronston's fight against the Covington man is as inexplicable as it is apparently unavailing.

HON. JAMES D. BLACK, of Barbourville, says he is highly gratified at the very many solicitations for him to enter the race for governor, but for numerous and sundry reasons he says "Your candidate I can not be." At present he is sick in bed, but the editor of the Pathfinder didn't let a little thing like that stand in the way and interviewed him all the same.

THE proprietor of the recently burned Windsor Hotel, New York, will get $150 a day on "use and occupancy" policies carried on the house until it is rebuilt. This, with the quarter of a million that his wife, who lost her life in the fire, left him, ought to keep the wolf from his door awhile.

THE president wore a straw hat while basking in the sunny breezes of Georgia, but he didn't do as much talking through it as he did through the other one when in the State before, when he caught suckers by playing them platitudes about the North taking care of the Confederate graves.

A RAILROAD is being built up Mt. Ararat and it will soon be possible to reach its top in cars. This sounds like a heavy undertaking, but it can not hold a light to Noah's performance. He reached the summit by boat, something that had never been done before and never will be again.

JOSEPH MEDILL, the Chicago editor, left nearly $5,000,000, made in the newspaper business. Lives of great men all remind us, we can't make our millions too, but by patient earnest labor we may leave of dimes a few.

THERE has been desperate fighting in the Philippines and although the Filipinos were put to flight they killed in three days 60 and wounded 212 Americans. Their loss is large, but not in the usual ratio of former engagements. On being dislodged from Malabon, to which they had fled, they set fire to it and it was nearly entirely destroyed. In capturing Malinta, Col. Egbert, of the 23d Infantry, was killed. On reaching Pilo the Americans found it deserted and burning. In advancing towards Malolos the Americans engaged the enemy in personal command of Alguinaldo and after a severe fight drove them back to Malolos. The Americans are forcing the fighting all along the line and hope thus to utterly rout the insurgents and put an end to hostilities.

THE testimony of Gov. Roosevelt, who was colonel of the Rough Riders in the Cuban and Porto Rican campaigns, settles so incontestably the contention of Gen. Miles as to the quality of the canned beef furnished the army that the court of inquiry might as well quit and find its verdict. The governor says it was unfit to eat, had a filthy slime over it and was utterly and hopelessly unacceptable. It gave the well men diarrhea and the sick men could not take it at all. This testimony is corroborated by hundreds of others and leaves no more doubt that the canned beef sent the army under pretense of experiment was unfit even for dogs to eat than that Eagan is not a gentleman.

ROOSEVELT says he was hungry enough during the Cuban campaign to have eaten his hat, but he was never hungry enough to eat Eagan's beef. His stomach revolted when he attempted to eat it. It is now in order for Eagan to tell in how many ways the ex rough rider and present governor of New York lies.

THE San Francisco Call says that Gov. Bradley has decided to settle permanently in San Francisco and take up the practice of law. It is said that he will be attorney for the Southern Pacific. We are still betting though that the governor won't leave Kentucky.

GUM SHOE HUNTER, who is in Louisville before returning to Guatemala, says he is out of politics for good. Doubtless he means for the good of politics. Certainly as long as there is an office with a salary attached, he will never give up his pursuit of it.

THE Philippines Co. writes us that it will carry packages to Manila at $3 for those under 25 pounds and that for $200, it will take us there. Thanks awfully, but we believe we can wait till Aguinaldo is disposed of.

It is proving a much severer undertaking to subdue our new wards than to whip their late masters and Dewey's victory in Manila bay may prove anything but a blessing in disguise.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

TO THE LADIES.—I will have my opening of Easter hats and bonnets Saturday, April 1st. Mrs. A. A. McKinney.

SMALL-POX, or rather small-pox so called, is still reported to exist among the Negroes in the Walnut Flat section. Dr. Edmiston told us yesterday he had 10 cases. The neighbors say there have been hundreds of cases of the disease, which, if small-pox at all, is of a very light variety.

FROM SOLDIER TO LANDLORD.—Capt. W. B. Penny, who was captain of Co. B, 6th Immunes, has rented the St. Asaph Hotel from Messrs. Farris & Hardin and will take possession Saturday. Well known and popular Capt. Penny should do well. Messrs. Farris & Hardin are undecided as to their future.

WORMY.—Corporal Winfred B. Portman can corroborate Gen Miles' beef accusation. He has just returned from Porto Rico and tells us that he saw worms in the canned beef issued to the army and that the refrigerator beef was not fit to eat. "How did you live 'Pig'?" was asked. "On hard tack and coffee" was his reply.

THERE is a general desire among the Garrard democrats for Judge M. D. Hughes to announce for representative, but he hasn't said "yes" yet. There are many who think the republicans wouldn't put up a man if the judge accepts the nomination, knowing the absolute folly in trying to beat him, even with their big republican majority.

ACQUITTED.—Fred Niccola who was charged by the coroner's jury with having caused the death of Zach Padgett by striking his horse and causing him to run off, was before Judge Bailey yesterday, but there was not sufficient evidence to support the charge and he was discharged. The witness upon County Attorney Helm relined, went square back on him.

DELICATE OPERATION.—A friend writes from Pittsburg: Two weeks ago Kin Chumley, while in a scuffle with Roscoe Kuhn and Andrew Patterson, was shot with a 38 Smith & Wesson pistol and thought to be mortally wounded. Dr. Jackson Givens, resident physician, and Drs. Ramsey and Caldwell, of London, operated upon him and found that the bowel was perforated in two places. These injuries were repaired and by close attention the patient is recovering rapidly.

LOTS OF LUCRE.—When old man Zach Padgett was killed his people were very much surprised as well as hurt not to be able to find the money he claimed to have had. There was suspicion of foul play and search was instigated for the missing lucre. It was finally rewarded a few days ago by the finding of $2,670 in lots of $100 or so in various and sundry places, some in old cans, under rocks etc. It is thought that it was hid by one who hoped to get it unsuspected after the excitement over its loss had subsided.

RECITAL.—Miss Annie Alcorn for the Young Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, has engaged the opera house for April 11th, for a recital to be given by Miss Nannette Camilla Heath, assisted by Mrs. Mary Garrard Beazley, for the benefit of the society. Miss Heath is a sister of Mrs. A. H. Severance and is a most talented musician, who has had the training of the best schools, being a graduate of the New England Conservatory at Boston. Those who have heard her are loud in her praise. The admission will be 25, 35 and 50c, the last amount for reserved seats.

MACK FERRELL, who killed Samuel Engleman here in 1893 over a game of cards, had his life sentence commuted to 10 years by Gov. Worthington yesterday. Counting off good time, Ferrell will be at home in 26 months, unless Worthington decides to let him come home sooner as he doubtless will. Ferrell has made an exceptionally good prisoner and is said to be thoroughly reformed. John R. Farris, a brother-in-law of the dead man, got onto the effort in Ferrell's behalf and employed Judge Denny to go to Frankfort and protest against it, but the old man had his head set. The report current at Lancaster yesterday that Judge Saffley and Commonwealth's Attorney Owsley had recommended the commutation proves untrue.

LEBANON.—The Lincoln county people who have become residents of Lebanon during the last few years are not only the best citizens of that town but are all doing well. Mr. Benedict Spalding, who farmed for years near Shelby City, is county attorney and besides enjoys a lucrative practice; W. F. Cabbell, a former Hustonville boy, is one of Lebanon's best grocers; H. N. Ware, who farms in Washington county and makes money under any and all circumstances, lives in Marion's capital and is giving his children a splendid education. John Lee Elkin has two butcher shops there and one at Springfield, all of which are gold mines; W. B. Holderman has a grist mill, while his son, J. D. Holderman, is manager of the electric light plant and son-in-law John A. Wallace, is a leading blacksmith. All of them are proud of their adopted home but the warm welcome they give a Stanford man shows plainly that they love the "town in a hollow" yet and forget not their friends of yore. By the way Mr. Cabbell has a fine young son named for Mr. Jesse P. Riffe, of the West End. Lebanon is not growing much but she is holding her own, which is pretty good these quiet times. She needs a court-house badly, but it would be hard to convince the tax-payers of that truth.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Solomon Byerly and wife, of Borden, Ind., have just celebrated the 70th anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. John Dunn and Miss Minnie Flynn are under arrest at Morehead for killing the former's husband.

To stimulate the matrimonial market the county clerk of Fayette will sell marriage licenses at $1 for the next 10 days.

Miss Lillian, daughter of Hon. Boyd Winchester, will be married to Mr. Louis Jones, of New York, at Louisville April 4.

Bob Burdett, the humorist, was married at Los Angeles, Cal., to Mrs. Clara Baker. It is hoped he didn't get an invalid this time.

J. O. Skiles, a bachelor of 29 years, and Mrs. Lucy Dawson, a widow one year his senior, were married at Owen-ton. It is the woman's third venture in this line.

William Steele, of Baltimore, holds the record for marrying. He is only 25 and has just married a third wife, who is twice his age and the mother of six living children.

A Cincinnati judge denied divorce to a man who asked it because his wife deceived him in the matter of eyes, one of them being glass, holding that women have the legal right to attract mankind with devices and attachments to improve the work of nature and a glass eye is no worse than false teeth.

LAND AND STOCK.

In Hardin county 25 fat young mules sold at $120.

F. P. Bishop bought of G. A. Swine-broad 48 two-year-old steers at $34.

H. N. Ware, of Washington county, has sold his lambs for July delivery at 5c.

John B. Foster sold to a Lexington firm two car loads of hay at $5 per ton here.

Good second-hand Deering Binder for sale cheap. M. S. Baughman, Stanford.

At Danville, Ill. 47 Poland Chinas averaged $28.26 and eight Durocs $23.44.

Forty mules were sold at auction in Franklin, Tenn., at an average of $125. John Brown and John Thompson sold to L. K. Perkins nine two-year-old mules at $30.

The McCormick Harvesting Machine Co. claim to have built and sold 189,760 machines in 1898.

Josiah Smith bought of George Falls 1,300 bushels of wheat at 73c.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

Richard Wilson sold his high acting saddle gelding, "The French Maid," to a New Yorker for $1,000.

At a public sale of Hereford cattle at Salisbury, Mo., 54 averaged $146.20, the highest priced bringing $300.

"First in war; first in peace," will be the inscription on the monument Col. Milt Young will erect over Hanover.

Extra lot registered and high grade Shorthorn bulls ready for service, for sale. Cobb & Lillard, Danville, Ky. 5t.

The 46 Aberdeen Angus cattle of M. Evans & Son averaged $583.25 and 46 Herefords brought an average of $516.10.

The court of appeals holds that race tracks, in enjoying an exclusive privilege of selling pools, possess a taxable franchise.

Milt Young received almost as many telegrams of condolence for the death of Hanover as the president would have had his wife died.

A. C. Robinson & Son sold B. F. Robinson 55 165-pound hogs at 3.35 and to Sweeney Morgan 50 for May 1 delivery at the same price.

E. P. Woods bought at Lancaster yesterday a three-year old mare mule for $100. Henry Patterson bought a combined mare for $90.

Commissioner Lucas Moore announces that all of the $728.75 worth of seed he had for distribution is exhausted and there is no more to send.

Our horse advertisements will begin with next issue. Hadn't you better hand in yours if you want the people to know that you are standing a stallion or jack?

The Winchester Democrat says there were 400 cattle on the market there yesterday and many were left unsold. Prices ran from 24 to 5c. A young Mary bull calf sold for $100.

Ed Geers is in favor of the two in three heats for trotting because so many horses are ruined by over-exercising and further because it would stop book-making on heats.

At New Orleans Saturday King Barleycorn, selling 2 to 1, won the Crescent City handicap, worth $4,000 and at San Francisco, Fleur de Lis won the rich Burns handicap at 9 to 2.

O. O. Stealey, the Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal, has bought Mrs. McMurtry's place near Elizabethtown, with a brick residence and 37 acres of land, for $5,000.

Dogs got into John B. Foster's sheep the other day and killed three lambs and a ewe. He traced the canines, which belonged to Robert Carr, colored, up and filled them full of shot.

W. H. Traylor bought of W. P. Grimes 400 barrels of corn at $1.75 delivered. Until the last few days Mr. Traylor has been mashing Western corn at his distillery which cost him $2 delivered.

The Jessamine Journal reports a sale of 1,500 bushels of wheat at 75c and of a pair of 16-hand 3-year-old mare mules $212. A Poland China sow belonging to J. E. Rutherford has had three litters of pigs in 12 months, or 31 in all.

James Walker Givens is back from Mississippi, where he finds a very hard market. He sold a car of mules and one of horses, the former at $50 to $80 and the latter at $50 to $150. The winter was a bad one and business was practically suspended.

It took chloroform 23 minutes to do the work for Hanover. In order to keep him from eating too much he was muzzled. This made him mad and he pawed the stall, injuring his leg in which gangrene set up. He cost Col. Young $15,500 and earned for him $100,000 and more. He declined offers of $65,000 and $75,000 within the last three years. He was only 14 years and was a son of Hindoo and Bourbon Belle.

LANCASTER COURT.—There were probably 500 cattle on the Lancaster market and some demand for them, although at least half did not change hands. No public sales were made, but here are most of the private transactions: W. H. Brown sold a bunch of 650-pound heifers at 34c, a lot of calves at $14 to $15 and 50 hogs at 34; J. M. Roberts, of Pulaski, sold lot of cows at $20, heifers at $13 and a bunch of steer calves at $17; Josh Wilson and W. I. Herrin, of this county, sold a bunch of yearling steers and heifers at $22, some calves at $16, yearling heifers at $12 and butcher stuff at 34c; Conrad Hiatt sold lot two-year-old steers at $32 and yearling heifers at $18; J. M. Cress sold some heifers at 34c and steer calves at $14; G. T. Wood sold to J. M. Saunders 38 Tennessee steers at $30. J. M. Hill bought some butcher stuff at 24 and John VonGrünigan some strippers at $31 to $47. A few aged mules brought $50 to $90 and good horses about the same price. There was not much demand for either.
